OBJECTIVES OF COURSE:
This course is designed to aid the student in understanding and applying accounting principles and concepts. After completion of the course, the student should possess a working knowledge of the application of technical aspects of accounting; and, in addition, the student should comprehend the theoretical justification underlying the implementation of various procedures. The study of Intermediate Financial Accounting is continued in Accounting 305 and then Accounting 306. Advanced Financial Accounting is then covered in Accounting 308. A complete mastery of the material in this series of courses is absolutely essential to any individual who plans to pass the Uniform Certified Public Accountant Examination.

CONTENT OF COURSE:
Financial Accounting and Accounting Standards
Conceptual Framework Underlying Financial Accounting
The Accounting Information System
Income Statement and Related Information
Balance Sheet and Statement of Cash Flows
Accounting and the Time Value of Money
Cash and Receivables
Inventories
Property, Plant and Equipment
Depreciation, Impairment, and Depletion
Intangibles

TEACHING TECHNIQUES:
The classes are basically lecture oriented, with the student having the opportunity to ask questions or make comments as may be appropriate. The student's responsibility is to read all assigned material and complete problem assignments. There will be two examinations - a midterm and a final. Excessive absences, late arrivals, and early departures will negatively affect the final course grade.

EXAMS
There will be no make-up for assignments or exams. If an examination or assignment is missed without a valid, documented and approved excuse, a score of zero point will be given for that examination or assignment. Valid excuses may include serious medical problems (physician’s letter required), the demise of immediate family members, a call to arms, etc. A valid excuse does not include forgetting the date of the exam, waking up late, fatigue, incarceration, prior personal plans, sickness of pets or other relatives, or defective transportations. Leaving a message on my voice mail/email does not constitute me granting permission! Finally, academic dishonesty on an exam or assignment will result in a failing grade for the entire course.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY
Academic integrity requires a commitment to complete and absolute honesty in your intellectual efforts. "Violations of academic integrity include but are not limited to the following categories: cheating; plagiarism; fabrication; falsification or sabotage of research data; destruction or misuse of the University’s academic resources; alteration or falsification of academic records; academic misconduct. Conduct that is punishable under the academic integrity policy could result in additional disciplinary actions by other University officials and possible civil or criminal prosecution." (DePaul Student Handbook, p. 58. http://www.depaul.edu/university-catalog/academic-handbooks.)

If you are unsure of any issue as it applies to academic integrity, please ask me. Academic integrity violations will be dealt with severely. I reserve the right to inspect student work for violations of academic integrity. To this end, students may be required to submit electronic versions of any assignment and have that assignment analyzed by services such as TurnItIn.com. TurnItIn.com analyzes student content for plagiarism against content on the World Wide Web and a database of previously submitted papers and essays. In the past, I have failed several students in this class for such violations. Some of them failed to graduate as a result. You have been warned.
